Ride leader report:

Bruce reported people are still riding in the cold and there have been new riders in the Sunday ride. Bruce stated the weather looks good for the Baton Rouge City Park century on February 12. We should start pushing the upcoming trainings.

Mail update:

Alaric Haag was not present.

Treasurer report:

Online Quicken renewed for $37.59. Lynn completed the online report for the Secretary of State. Lynn will need to purchase the annual insurance, which will cost about $300. We have $6,779.49 between Paypal and Capitol One.

Membership update:

We have 60 members for 2022.

Spring Ride

Cody may hear back from Istrouma Brewing and we may have to pay a small fee to clean their port-o-pots. We would like to consider using the parks, including St. Gabriel or Amanda Grace. Lynn suggested using Entergy. Cody requested the long routes so he could see about the locations for the port-o-pots. Cody requested a Scout and bike patch and Lynn recommended Rowland create the design.

Jerseys and ride medals

Herb will get quotes from Primal for hi visibility jerseys with our logo with black behind it and the flags. Cody recommended we use the BRBC century logo for the ride medals.

New business

Cody recommended leading rides on Wednesdays or Thursdays at Istrouma Brewing. The club will
